W. W. DIMOND'S

By the Miowera the other day, we received direct from the factory, a magnificent assortment of French China. Among the lot we have two new stock patterns, from which customers may select either one piece or ten dozen. In this way customers may replace any breakage at the lowest possible cost and without the necessity of purchasing an entire new set.

In this same invoice we have some of the most beautifully decorated toilet sets ever shown in Honolulu. These are made of fine crockery and will ornament any wash stand.

A fad among Honolulu people is decorating china. At the exhibition by the pupils of Miss French at Oahu College a short time ago, some beautiful specimens, the work of her pupils, were shown and will stand comparison with the work of professional artists abroad. Our stock which was opened a day or two ago contains all sorts of pieces and in many sizes. They are made especially for decorating and are inexpensive.

1895 Rambler, $75.00

Trusting that you may be interested in cycling, we take the liberty of stating to you a few facts about our wheels:

We need not trouble you with needless description of the World Famed "RAMBLER" Bicycle, which by its easy running, appearance, strength and lasting qualities has won for the makers a name world renowned.

The "RAMBLERS" are equipped with the great G. & J. Detachable Tire, which since its introduction to Honolulu has proved, by the numbers in use, the most successful and necessary adjustment to a bicycle.

We take great pleasure in recommending to our friends the "RAMBLER" and trust that in furnishing one to any person they will never have occasion to regret.

Our terms are such that a bicycle is no longer a luxury but a necessity in actual saving of time and money. We would ask you to but call and get our figures.

1896 Rambler. $95.00

As is customary nearing the close of each year, the makers in order to get ready for the ensuing year, offer the present 1896 wheels at reduced prices. We are now prepared to give our customers the benefit of these reductions as long as our stock holds out. For those wishing an up to date wheel of the highest grade, one which we can guarantee to the fullest extent, we would offer the "RAMBLER." As to improvements for the coming season we would say we anticipate none. Such changes which may be made will, as has been the past two years, be changes immaterial to the improvement of the wheel in general.

Kindly give this some thought or call your friends' attention to it and oblige.

Yours truly,

E. O. Hall & Son

DRESSY BODICE FRONTS AND STYLISH NECKWEAR.

Some of the Latest Styles in This Class of Articles, Which Change a Drowsy Gown to a Dressy One—Collar Bands and Ruffs.

One of the difficult problems in dress just now takes the direction of the fronts of bodices and the dressing of the neck to the greatest advantage. In order to do this on a proper basis and as easily as possible is here collected some of the latest styles in this class of articles.

An excellent specimen of an addition to a bodice which can be introduced under the jacket or over a plain fitting waist is a bodice front in lawn and embroidery. The frill on either side is of openwork embroidered lawn. The soft silk in front is covered with the same material, but plain and clear, while round the throat and down the front is some black tulle worked over with colored paillettes. This admits of a great variety as regards materials.

A useful vest front is of lawn of a Holland color over pink silk, with rows of embroidery carried down the front and around the neck and waist.

Decidedly important is a lisse front with a handsome galloon carried down the center and a bow at the throat which is attached to a wide collar band fastened with a brooch. It is astonishing how, by means of these and similar additions, one can transform a drowsy gown into a dressy one. This is also easily done by paying attention simply to the dressing of the neck.

An attractive article of neckwear is a straight collar made in pink lisse, with kilt plaited ends edged with lace, a couple of ornaments crossing in front. A lace and lisse ruff affords another pretty style. It has an upstanding plaited ruche and a frill of lace turning downward, supplemented by a double frill in front, the band kept in place by jeweled ornaments.

Paillette lace is quite the fashion. The collar bands are getting higher, but are softened by overlapping lace frills at the top, which often form a couple of cascades at the back, consisting of two triple box plaits, while some of these collar bands have kilt plaited ribbon, and large clusters of bows appear in the front or at the back. Other collar bands with lace ends have square battlemented pieces of lace, or ribbon edged with lace, falling over from the top, and satin (especially white satin), lisse and lace are all united. The gauze employed for these little additions is often elaborately embroidered, while the holland colored lawn is worked in white and also has cream lace appliques. Black and white net are liberally employed, and a great many black paillette fronts and chine ribbon bands have been worn. The blouses, which are fitted like a bodice, with all the care bestowed on a dress, are well worth having.

Information for Tourists.

A passenger by the last Colonial steamer was met on the dock by a Milesian American friend, who resides in Honolulu. As the pair waited to have the newcomer's gripsack scrawled over with chalk marks by the Customs Inspector at the gate the stranger remarked to his friend "Do you have much rain 'ere?" RAINIER the boy, gallons of it, just come up to the Anchor Saloon where they keep it always, clear and cool. We'll just be in time for lunch too and that's the only place in town where they serve it up in proper style with a glass of RAINIER BEER to equilibrate the solids—They went!
